

Safe zone

HEADER

The diagram shows a document layout with a large grey rectangular area in the center. Above this area, there is a white header section. In the top-left corner of the header, there is a grey square labeled 'Safe zone'. In the top-center of the header, there is a red circle. The word 'HEADER' is written in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters across the middle of the grey area. Below the grey area, there is a white section containing a dashed red line. Below the dashed line, there are two red horizontal bars on either side of the text 'staple area'.
